

Compleat Angler's First Club - Privacy Policy

Compleat Angler is committed to your privacy.

This statement sets out Compleat Angler's First Club privacy policy and the practices that will be followed to respect the privacy of individuals who deal with the Compleat Angler's First Club.

Collection of Information

The type of information collected by Compleat Angler to facilitate becoming a First Club member generally includes

- Name
- Address
- Email Address

Optional information collected includes

- Telephone numbers
- Survey questions which Compleat Angler feels will enable them to cater more to their customers needs

The information held by Compleat Angler generally comes from a registration form completed voluntarily by interested parties via our website, www.compleatangler.com.au or in person at one of our store locations.

When completing this registration form, the said person gives consent to Compleat Angler's use of the personal information supplied. This information will be used to contact members about promotions, special events, products, sales and anything else Compleat Angler feels might interest or benefit it's members.

Compleat Angler will not disclose any personal information supplied, to any other third party, unless compelled to do so by Law.

Security

Compleat Angler will take reasonable steps to protect the personal information it holds from misuse and loss and from unauthorised access or disclosure.

Openness

Compleat Angler has set out in this statement it's policies of management of personal information and will make this document available to anyone who asks for it.

On request by a member, Compleat Angler will take reasonable steps to let the member know, generally, what sort of personal information we hold, for what purposes and how we collect, hold, use and disclose that information.

Access

As a general rule, Compleat Angler will, on request by an individual, provide them with access to their personal information.
